APHASIA - VOLUME II

Psychological, Family, Social, and Rehabilitation Dimensions

Ernesto Luis García y García

Foreword by Dr. José Ramón Valdizán Usón

Understand the person behind the language disorder: emotional experiences, family adaptation, social participation, independence and rehabilitation. This volume combines clinical observations, personal reflections and approaches to rehabilitation.

Based on a longitudinal clinical study of 251 patients with aphasia, originating in a doctoral thesis at the University of Zaragoza (1991), updated in 2026.

For healthcare professionals, speech and language therapists, families and caregivers.
